Social Security calculates your Part D IRMAA; if your income goes down or you disagree with the calculations, file a dispute at: Medicare Income-Related Monthly Adjustment Amount — SSA: https://www.ssa.gov/forms/ssa-44.pdf.

If you do have to pay a Part A premium, the Part B premium and IRMAA, and the Part D IRMAA, these fees are deducted from your Social Security check. If you have an Advantage plan, these costs are not included in the premium you pay to the plan. If the amount isn't taken from your check, you'll get a bill from Medicare or the Railroad Retirement Board.
